

Dear Mr. Wilcox

Thank You very much for speaking to us today. Your personal experience of World War II was informative and heartfelt. I enjoyed listening to you speak, I learned so much about life, like never listen to rumors. So thank you for the advice and taking the time to talk with us today.

With Gratitude,

Dear Mr. Wilcox,

Thank you so much for taking the time out of your day to come speak to our class. I appreciate you telling your story and I admire your courage to survive, even though all odds were against you. I really enjoyed hearing about your struggle in the water for so long, ~~espe~~ especially when dealing with the loss of fellow soldiers. I am so grateful that you fought for our country and will always remember the sacrifices you made.

Sincerely,

Meagan Opakbau
