

Dear Mr. Wilcox,

First off, I'd like to say what a pleasure it was to hear your stories. It was truly an honor to hear from a war veteran. I found it fascinating how you were part of one of the two groups who dropped a bomb on Japan, and I fully agree with what you said about the bombs. It was simply America doing its job. It was protecting its people, just like Japan was doing. You were a great speaker, keeping us entertained with your great sense of humor. I'd like to say thank you so much for coming to speak to us.

Sincerely,
Jessica Cruz
