Dear Mr. Wilcox,

5/26/09

Thanks for coming and telling us your experience about the USS Indianapolis. Your story was amazing and the first hand experience just made it that much more interesting. Your story made me remember everything we studied about the war and I felt like your emotions really showed through. The first hand experience put to rest most of the rumors told about the war. It was an amazing morning and I appreciate you taking your time to talk to us.

Sincerely,

Morgan Cupps.
